the home is worth ten on the HERALD shoppers who carry small purchases are performing a patriotic duty.

FAIRFAX COUNTY MOBS FIGHT TO LYNCH NEGRO

Hundreds of Armed Men and Women, With Packs of Bloodhounds, Capture Man Who Assaulted Woman.

BULLETIN.

A dispatch from Clifton at 2:30 o'clock this morning says that a mob of men and women dragged George H. Burgess from the jail there and lynched him.

An armed posse of hundreds of men and women searched Fairfax County, Va., for five hours last night intent upon lynching the negro responsible for the attempted assault upon Mrs. Mildred Miller and an outrage committed on a 6-year-old girl in the same locality.

Sheriff Allison, of Fairfax County, finally arrested the negro after he had been shot through the left arm at the wrist.

The negro is George H. Burgess, said to be a Federal prisoner from the Atlanta (Ga.) penitentiary.

Running Fight.

Burgess was taken after he had en-gaged in a running fight with the pogaged in a running fight with the po-lice and rushed to police headquarters at Clifton, Va. at Clifton, Va.

The alleged attack upon Mrs. Miller was made late Friday afternoon.

Two hours later it was followed by an outrage upon a child less than

The arrest last night was accomplished after four different posses, aided by bloodhounds, had determined to run down the perpetrator of riff James Morgan declares the people are up in arms and may not be retrained unless the District of-ficials cease to bring Federal prisoners-for construction work and other duties to Occoquan. Since November 1, the sheriff aims that sixty-five prisoners have been brought to Lorton from Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and that seven-ty-five more have been brought to Lorton from Atlanta, Ga. An-us Federal prisoners have twenty-five who have escaped who have not been captured. Bur-

WILSON BIDES TIME ON ANSWER TO POPE

President Awaits Strategic Moment for Declaration on Peace.

The answer of President Wilson Pope's peace note may be until a certain strategic mowhen a word from Washing on may topple the German auto

There was every indication yes contingency so remote as it appear at first glance. learned yesterday that the tense concern, every scrap of in-rmation that the press and the ate Department can get from Ber-

The White House emphatically denied that the President contemplates a restatement before the Senate of the war aims and peace demands of the United States. This indication that

Self and Injures Child

lood during the war has been so great that at least five years of intensive cultivation in the United States will be required to make up the void. This Self and Injures Child

New York, Aug. 25.—Clasping his two-year-old daughter in his arms, James Bryne, 25, leaped from the fifth story of his home in East One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street today and was killed. The little girl is in a serious condition. The act is said to have followed a family quarrel.

Cultivation in the condition of means continued high prices for catty and hogs. The government may extend the pollowed and the price-fixing to cattle and hogs on the farm and to packers' products in the cities next year. But it will not do so this year. It is possible the government may even forbid or restrict the killing of hogs and the or restrict the killing of hogs and the sale of yeal in order that more cattle may be raised. Editors of weeklies and of agricultural papers are to be

TAXICAB BANDITS ESCAPE.

S. Bennett, paymaster for a comb factory and robbed him of $2,100.

What Is Your Boy Doing?

Has he anything to keep him in pocket money? Anything to keep him interestingly employed?

The Washington Herald Needs Boys to Deliver Papers

on routes. This does not mean selling papers. It means delivering papers to the homes to regular subscribers in your boy's own neighborhood. The boys are paid a regular salary for this work which requires but a couple of hours in the morning.

Some of Washington's biggest men laid the foundation of their business knowledge and fortune by delivering newspapers. Your boy should be gainfully occupied during the school vacation,

Phone, write or see G. E. Ma-ar, The Washington Herald of-

WEATHER-FAIR.

Wishes to Stabilize Industry During War.

Chicago, Iil., Aug. 25.—Herbert C. loover issued the following state-ent after meeting the packers and ment after meeting the packers and editors of farm papers here today:

"Mr. Hoover wishes to state emphatically that there is no foundation for any statement that the Food Administration has any intention to fix prices of beef or pork products. The administration hopes to develop by discussion with representatives committees of the hop producers, the cattle producers, the cattle producers the commission was attle producers, the commission men and the packers greater stabilization of the industry during the war and in such a way as to encourage pro-duction, to eliminate speculative profits and risks so far as may be and by so doing to protect the consumer. These discussions will take some time and action will only be taken mly with the co-operation of all the roups concerned. No rumors or re-orts to the contrary should be given were active in all the conferences.

Hoover Makes Impression.

Mr. Hoover made an extremely fa-orable impression upon the packers, frect, apparently absolutely frank urged by Mr. Hoover to spread broad-cast appeals to farmers to raise more ewes, cows and hogs for breeding pur-Conditions Not Temporary.

Bridge to Naval Base

Set on Fire by Spies

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 25.—An attempt was made tonight to detroy the railway over which was carried workmen and supplies to the Jamestown naval base.

The vinduet has been set after and is now burning. It was the second attempt to destroy the bridge.

Several weeks ago there were rumors that German sples were operating in this vicinity and attempts to wreck industrial plants

Guard forces were increased, but in spite of the vigilance small damage was done at va-rious places.

Secret Service agents have been especially active recently to run down what is believed to be a well organized Hun plot

President Holds They Are

Not Liable for Military Service.

President Wilson yesterday rule

President Wilson yesterday ruled that wives of men selected in the draft should not, because they had employment before marriage, be thrown upon their own resources or upon the charity of their own or their husband's parents for support. He ordered that all men upon whose labors their wives or children depend entirely for support, should be exempted. His action was taken in response to nation-wide was taken in response to nation-wid-protests against the harsh interpreta-ion placed on the draft law by the Provost Marahal General's office, that woman whose parents or whose hus-pand's parents were able and willing to support her and her children, or who was qualified to gain her own aupport, should be thrown upon those resources and her husband sent to

The President's orders were con-ained in a letter to Secretary of War elpt the Secretary got into touch with Provost Marshal General Crowder and two conferences followed. After the second, which lasted an hour and

In his letter the President said: "We ought, as far as practicable, to ssued under that regulation directing exemption boards to establish the fact of dependents in addition to the fact of marriage ought not to be abrogated."

Defense of Rulings.

prior to marraige could return to the industrial world, or that parents shrould be put in the position of sup-porting their married daughters or cted.

Simultaneously with his letter to Secretary Baker directing the rein-terpretation of the law, the Presi-dent again wrote to Senator Weeks

Mr. Hoover told the packers and by Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts.

Mr. Hoover told the packers and by Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts.

It was in response to a letter and it was in response conditions at present are not temporary, in the sense that they will quickly change if the war should end in a few months. Mr. Hoover believes, whether the war goes on or not, that the shortage of food in Europe and the lack of shipping to bring food the lack of shipping to bring food the nice which head to be incomplished by the head to be incomplished.

rulings in view of the Presi-

Immediately upon their re-to destroy vital points here.

were frustrated.

WASHINGTON, D. C., SUNDAY, AUGUST 26, 1917.

Special Police Detail Guards Notorious Dive In South Washington

Superintendent of Gospel Mission Called the Attention of War Department to Immoral Conditions on Four-and-a-half Street.

Herald's Expose of Washington Vice Is Substantiated by Gospel Mission

Representative Nelson, of Wisconsin, is president of the Gospel Mission, at 214 and 216 John Marshall Place, which indorses every line of what The Washington Herald printed yesterday about condi tions in South Washington

The other officers are I. H. Linton, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Munroe vice president; C. R. Unger, financial secretary; W. L. Clarke, vice presiident, and S. M. Croft, secretary. The letter to The Washington Herald from Superintendent H. W

Kline says: Editor Washington Herald: "Dear Sir-I am glad The Herald has taken cognizance of the retched conditions in South Washington. "And unless conditions are remedied and nuisances abated, we may look for race troubles, which are sure to crop out in such breed-ing places of vice. The Secretary of War and others have been warned by our mission workers of the true condition, and the probable results of this state of affairs. I inclose you our last edition of our Mission Tidings, which contains an article by our city missionary that sub stantiates in every detail your article in this morning's paper.

"Personally I have, as a rescue mission worker, visited the slumof the large cities of this and other countries, but not even in Whitechapel have I seen anything as open and victous as the sins of South Washington today.

"Trusting your expose will bring cleansing to that section of our city, I am, sincerely yours,

Nine arrests were made last night from the section of Four-anda-half street southwest surrounding the disreputable establishments tioned by The Washington Herald yesterday.

The police were active and the extra detail succeeded in rounding

League, which resulted in the bryak mentioned by The Washington Herald yesterday. up five colored men, one colored woman and three white men for drunkenness and other misdemeanors.

Surrounded by a large detail of Heraid was the real cause that kept police, the notrious establishment on decent conditions prevailing. Four-and-a-half street southwest, exposed by The Washington Herald yesterday, was peaceful last night. It still had its negro and white vomen congregated about the tables three-quarters, Gen. Crowder came out of Mr. Baker's office with a bul-letin to local boards in his hand through which he announced the for some time were missing.

It may have been the presence of an extra detail of police, many in attested that the minimum and others in plain clothes, the conditions. President's letter and the ruling of the that served to maintain peace and order, but the general opinion was ports to the contrary should be given the slightest consideration."

Mr. Hoover came to Chicago today from Washington for his first conference with the packers. His right-hand man, M. L. Requa, precisied Mr. Hoover and had a conference for several hours with the chief packers. Among those present at the conference were Charles H. Swift and T. H. Ingersen, of Swift & Co.; Themas E. Wilson, of Wilson & Co.; Nelson Morris and Edward Morris, Jr. of Morris & Co., and Arthur Meeker, vice president of Armour & Co.

Maj. Puliman Silent.

Pullman, superintendent of had no official comment to police, had no official comment to make yesterday upon the conditions mingling with uniformed men of the army. Along the bar was the members of the vice squad and groups customary collection of colored and of officers in uniform lined the white men, but the orgies that have featured the after dark happenings the slleged "near beer" saloon which has been a favorite rendezvous of the men in uniform apparently an extra detail of police, many in > Gospel Mission, states in a letter CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO.

"Magnificent," Verdict of Jap Head When He Views Middies at U.S. Academy

Mr. Hoover joined the conference later and will continue it tomorrow, and he expects to return to Washington in the evening. Gifford Pinchot and Francis J. Henry, counsel for the Federal Trade Commission, were active in all the conferences. Seven hundred and fifty fourth-class men of the United States Naval Academy, young blood of the American navy, lined up in review yesterday before Viscount Ishii, Admiral Takeshita and others of the "The regulations promulgated on June 20, 1917, should be regarded as controlling these cases, and orders Japanese Mission.

They made a magnificent showing in their stalwart freshness and he time ripe for a reply to the Pope, laken together with the interest he has shown in German political news, cannot be neglected.

The little Japanese Ambassador smiled generously and remarked: "Magnificent!"

Friday's news of the meeting of the main committee of the Reichstag, demonstrating the growth of dissatisfaction with Chancellor Michaelis, is regarded as of the most far-reaching importance.

Three elements of world politics are considered to be rapidly working toward a tremendous climax:

Pope Benedict's message has recited a prologue which prepares the canced the apackers to accomplish what is necessary.

The opinion was expressed at the conference that food prices have for peace.

The allies' artillery is developing an action that makes but one denousment of the drama possible.

The approhenced development of the principle characters—the intendent of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this principle characters—the intendent of the Academy, their keen alpeans of the engineering the carders as "the heart of the new rules," says the secorted through all the departments of the heat charders as "the heat of the proposet as transpars of the Academy—the engineering of the Academy—the engineering of the Academy—the engineering Then the distinguished visitors were escorted through all the departments of the Academy—the engineering, where modern battleship appliances are used in training; the drill hall, where husky youths were doing stunts of coached athletes; the barracks, where the middles, with queer inscriptions on their ditty boxes, reflected to the distinct of the distinct of the middles, with queer inscriptions on their ditty boxes, reflected to the distinct of the middles, with queer inscriptions on their ditty boxes, reflected to the distinct of the middles, with queer inscriptions on their ditty boxes, reflected to the middles, with queer inscriptions on their ditty boxes, reflected to the middles, with queer inscriptions of the middles, with queer inscriptions of the middles, with queer inscriptions and models of the new-electrically, torpedo boat engines in full operation and models of the new-electrically, torpedo boat engines in full operation and models of the new-electrically. From here the Japanese were taken into the library where Japanese were ta action that makes but one denousment of the drama possible.

The psychological development of one of the principle characters—the German people—seems to be undergoing a dramatic change.

Sary next year and probably for several years to come for the government itself to stimulate the production of the fact that scrutiny of cases of this both hogs and cattle. The slaughter of hogs for fat in Germany and of cattle in France and the Argentine for "It was not intended that parasite to Japan's similar institution." was advisable.

"It was not intended that paradout make up the void. This prepared to make up the void. This continued high prices for cattle and hogs.

"It was not intended that paradout they modestly respectively to the case of the head of a family whose family at the time of his summons, and prior thereto, were and had been mainly dependent upon his labor for support."

"It was not intended that paradout they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of the served to Japan's similar institution of the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to Japan's similar institution of its kind in the world—but they modestly reserved to delegation went over from Washing-ton early in the day. They were met by an escort of middies and led up to the wide plaza where the fourth-The last paragraph of the bulletin is a defense of the rulings of he local boards to date, and instructions to district boards to modify class men were lined up in front of them, spic and span, erect and strong. With the Stars and Stripes floating in a brilliant sun over them, the band played the Japanese national anthem. dent's new interpretation of the law.

The President's attention had been called to the decisions of some local boards that women who had worked types of marine engines, boilers, ima single Japanese emblem.

"Where is the Japanese flag?" inquired the frank, wondering vis-

"There is none here," was the re

No Japanese Flag. "No; you see all of these flags were captured in war and in actions in which Americans took part-we have never taken a Japanese flag."

Army Recruits in Parade Sept. 4

the lack of shipping to bring food from the Argentine means unprecedented demands upon the United States for years to come. In Germany especially, the farms will have to be practically restocked with young animals after the war.

"Tell everybody to raise a pig who can do so," said Mr. Hoover. "It will pay."

Along with the stimulation of farm production Mr. Hoover will develop a scheme and a scale of price regulation to be put into effect next year. Every producer and packer will have conditions as far as the government.

Secretary McAdoo Says and Mr. Hoover will develop a scheme and a scale of price regulation to be put into effect next year. Every producer and packer will have conditions as far as the government.

Secretary McAdoo Says and Mr. Hoover will develop a scheme and a scale of price regulation to be put into effect next year. Every producer and packer will have conditions as far as the government.

Secretary of Treasury McAdoo Says letting an army and it is felt the have gone and are to go from Washington to be put into effect next year. Every producer and packer will have conditions as far as the government can make them that will stimulate to the highest production. In the distribution of this unprecedented production no unscrupulous or greedy middlenan or speculator will be allowed to take unjust toll from the consumers.

CAR STRIKE AT MERIDIAN.

Meridian, Miss., Aug. 25.—Not a wheeling to the controversy with Mr. Daniels sturning tonight as the result of a walk-out of 49 motormen this afternoon, of the Meridian Light and Railway Company, operated by the Navy League of the Navy League of the Navy League of the contrary." Said Mr. Mcdoo calls an "impression that I have recognized the Navy League of the contrary." Said Mr. Mcdoo calls and "miss. Aug. 25.—Not a wheeling an army and it is felt the late to the highest produce and packer will have gone and are to go from Washington to uphold the national integration to uphold the national integrated to the make the those who make up this great termy which is to uphold world democracy that the American people of the May League of the disapproval democracy that the American people will stand by them and with the to the last man and woman and that the citizens of the District of the nobility of their undertaking.

CAR STRIKE AT MERIDIAN.

Meridian, Miss., Aug. 25.—Not a wheeling to democracy that the American people will stand by the May League in the decirated the Navy League of Columbia have hits action in the second to the last man and woman and with the the last man and woman and that the citizens of the District of the nobility of their undertaking.

In order to make this section the stream and woman and that the citizens of the District of the nobility of their undertaking. In order to make this action in the second to the more approached to the man and woman and the production of the nobility of their undertaking. In order to make this action the

Two Artillerymen Killed in Explosion

Fort Sill, Okla., Aug. 25.—
Two members of Battery A, Second Missouri Field Artillery, were killed and four others seriously lajured, when a shrapnel shell exploded on the cantonment range late today, completely wrecking the mess hall in which they were preparing their first meal after arriving at the Oklahoma post. All are from Kansas City.

The dead:
Private Nelson.
Private James Kelly.
The injured are: Privates Oakley, Bloomer, McGraw and Raymond. Sill, Okla., Aug. 25.-embers of Battery A, Sec-

Navy Yard Explosion On Pacific. The powder explosion at the Marc Island Navy Yard was the work of

That is the decision of the investigating board whose long-awaited report finally was made public vester-a spy, designed to cripple America in The explosion, the board finds, "was due to the deliberate act of some person or persons unknown." Government agents are conducting a spy bunt to trace down the culprits. In making public its findings the etween the navy and that between the navy and that organization, that he had hampered the investigation.

Accompanying it, also, is a telegram from the ordnance inspector at Mare Island, Commander Mark St. C. Ellis, exculpating labor men of charges that they tried to hinder the probe.

The report summarized by three in-they tried to hinder the prope.

The report, summarized by three inspecting officers in Washington, officials of the Bureaus of Ordnance and Navigation and the Judge Advocate General of the navy, says: Findings of Department.

The record contains the testimony sy proceedings clearly indicates to gence of any hampering instructions restrictive direction as to the school of investigation. The board's manding that all the mutineers be and thus bending the British with emaittered viocence, succeeded in retaking Iverness manding that all the mutineers be and thus bending the British with emaittered viocence, succeeded in retaking Iverness manding that all the mutineers be and thus bending the British with emaittered viocence. ost latitude and thoroughness.

"The only person seen to enter this utilding on the morning of the explosion was Ordnance Man Neil C. hamstedt, a trusted employe of twen-years' continuous magazine ervice. Dannstedt was killed.

"The board in its findings states that it is of the opinion that Dam-years' continuous magazine ervice. Dannstedt was killed.

"The board in its findings states that it is of the opinion that Dam-years' continuous magazine ervice. Dannstedt was killed.

hat it is of the opinion that Dam-tedt was in no way implicated in he explosion and that the testimony and attending circumstances do not Further, the board states that, ter having carefully considered all restimony and attending curcum-stances, it is of the unanimous opin-ion that the explosion was not an accident, but was due to the deliber-that of some person or person.

trace was found of the persons implicated in the explosion. The explosion was designed to wreck the entire naval station at Mare Island and deprive the Pacific warships of their principal, have be their principal base.

LABOR THREATENS

mentous gathering in Russia's history was getting ready for its opening session today organized labor for the little shrine where hangs the bronze bell presented to Commodore Perry by the Japanese government on the occasion of the commander's visit which opened Japanese government on the greatness of the world. And then they visited the chapel where the body of the immortal John Paul Jones lies.

mentous gathering in Russia's history was getting ready for its opening session today organized labor of Russia threw the gauntiet down to government, law and order, the gauntiet down to government, law and order, the constant of Russia, through their leaders, throughout the land. The workers of Russia, through their leaders, the greatness of the world. And then they visited the chapel where the body of the immortal John Paul Jones lies.

In the probable that the grand jury caused a great jam. The congestion was less than anticipated, however, because of the Saturday half-holiday. with the Stars and Stripes floating in a brilliant sun over them, the band played the Japanese national anthem. Viscount Ishii and his commissioners stood at salute with the American of fores.

The Capt Eberle escorted the little men of the East into the wonders of the Yankee naval engineering works. He showed the latest

Will Honor District's National Army Recruits in Parade Sent 4

Army Recruits in Parade Sent 4

Dones lies.

Counter revolutionary movement. Strong detachments of troops are detachments of troops are under the future admirals were preparing for mess. Some of them were understanded as great jam. The coangestion was less than anticipated, however, becaused the future admirals were preparing for mess. Some of them were understanded to the follows will bring forth. Everyone feels the men of the East into the wonders of the Yankee naval engineering works. He showed the latest

Will Honor District's National Army Recruits in Parade Sent 4

Army Recruits in Parade Sent 4

Dones lies.

Counter revolutionary movement. Strong detachments of troops are durating to counter revolutionary movement. Strong detachments of troops are formed the study half-holiday. Strong detachments of troops are followed; in the future admirals were preparing for mess. Some of them were understanced as great jam. The counter revolutionary movement. Strong detachments of troops are followed; in the future admirals were preparing for mess. Some of them were understanced and others sold at a suite with the American of the counted the flowes half-holiday. According to the police, one of the will investigate the release.

Will bring forth. Everyone feels been drooped at Richmond today if the flowes of the Saturday half-holiday. Mex." is a message alleged to have the intention of the police, one of the visit form the train bearing the negro sold the shortage of coal was caused by Mex." is a message alleged to have the individual form the future admirals were put one of the police, one of the visit form the future admirals were put o Dissension over the Dardanelles question was the main issue. Kerensky being the first man to urge conducted will determine which beabandonment of Russia's dream for possession of the straits.

Gen. Korniloff is strongly advoluted the multivariation of the rail- columbus."

many suppositions. Out the point of the strains were put on to relieve the congestion. At all of the downtown stations there were big jams, but the police in the hands of Maj. Gen. Parker at crowds and there were no accidents.

AUSTRIAN TROOPS FLEE BEFORE ITALIAN DRIVE

Terrific Cannonading and Fierce Air Attacks With Machine Guns-Tri-Color Mounts Monte Santo Summit.

London, Aug. 25 .- "Breaking through," that ominous word which holds the top notch record of frivolous frequency in the dispatches of enthusiastic war correspondents, but which is used by war offices only when the enemy's line is actually caving in, is found in the opening paragraph of today's official Italian statement.

"The gallant troops of the second army," reported Gen. Cadorna, "having broken through the line of defense at several points, are closely pursuing the enemy, who is retiring and defending the dif-Daniels Reports Findings of ficult ground yard by yard."

SCORE SERIES OF VICTORIES

Italy's fighting legions have, within one week, scored a series of victories that have sent their Hapsburg foe reeling backward along the whole front from Plava to the Adriatic. As a triumphant climax to the first phase of their drive they captured, yesterday, the 2.245foot-high Monte Santo, the "Dead Man Hill" of the Gorizia front, seven miles north of the city.

"Since yesterday," says the Rome war office, "the tri-color has been flying on the summit of Monte Santo." Gains Made Everywhere,

Secret Removal of Colored Troops After Clash Causes

An exedus of periors from the San south of Vendhulle.

Level headed citizens comm attack and promising full protection The colored men went the night groups were seen leaving the ne-county grand jury this afternoon against forty negro soldiers of the Twenty-fourth infantry believed to nurders Thursday night,

When the thirty-four negroes charg-"Most Momentous" Gathering Being Retarded as Clouds Gather.

(By the International News service.)

Mozeow, Aug. 25.—Just as the extraordinary congress, the most momentous gathering in Russia's history was getting ready for its opening session today organized labor of Russia threw the gauntlet down to government, law, and order the prace Leon Lusk, who issue of the Prace Leon Lusk, who issue the blanket warrant against the invertigation. All available information was laid before the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Crocker decided upon an invertigation. All available information was laid before the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Crocker decided upon an invertigation. All available information was laid before the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Crocker decided upon an invertigation. All available information was laid before the grand jury by Assistant District Attorney Williamson.

Following a tour of the city and conferences with civil and military leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, said Houston will be removed from martial law tomorrow.

When information and available information was lattered to conferences with civil and military leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, said Houston will be removed from martial law tomorrow.

When information and military leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, said Houston will be removed from martial law tomorrow.

When information and was leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, said Houston will be removed from martial law tomorrow.

When information and was leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, said Houston will be removed from martial law tomorrows.

When information and was leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command Camp Logan, and the conference with city and military leaders, Maj. Gen. Bell, who arrived this morning to command the command camp Logan and

The French, too, were victorious elves masters of three powerful Ge field fortresses. They brought the enday up to 5,101.

Nor were the British idle. Berlin was forced to admit that the Teuton line was "pressed back a little" on the front astride the Ypres Menin road. At the same time the degged Canadi ans bit themselves further into the outskirts of L ns. On both sides of plainly alarmed and bayonet. They snatched a trench mitted in connection with the evidence adduced by the board.

"A careful reading of the orders creating this board and the record of daily proceedings clearly indicates the absence of any hampering instructions or restrictive direction as to the nethod of investigation.

"Begins of the mutinous colored on the Angio-German front. Fired the perhaps were not, however, all roops on the Angio-German front. Fired the colored regulars were altered as the arch enemy who must be beaten, the Teuton troops amply ready entrained.

Leading citizen.

Berlin Is Sitent.

against forty negro soldiers of the Twenty-fourth infantry believed to have been involved in the mutiny and murders Thursday night.

So carth-shaking is the Italian drum fire that ushers in every new attack according to news reaching here vit murders Thursday night.

said today.

"No one man can say what the cause of the uprising was. There are informed at the subway entrances and many suppositions, but only a thort the trains were not running. Extra ough investigation such as is being surface and "L" trains were put on

amminiminiminiminiminiminimini MAIL FLAT, NOT ROLLED

"All-Prize Home Subscription Club"

NOTE—This "Vote Credit" is good for the number of votes indicated above for the candidate whose name is filled in, when it is received at the All-Prize Home Subscription Club Department of The Washington HERALD.

VOID AFTER SEPTEMBER 8.